

INTARA Television and Radio Festival is the leading TV and Radio industry event and as such it is a Festival for everyone from senior executives to newcomers. Attendance by local and international delegates representing the diverse range of the industry from broadcasters, terrestrial, satellite, cable and digital, production companies, distributors, new media companies and television support services.

The sessions are designed to appeal to the interests of all our delegates who include controllers, commissioners, executives, producers, directors, marketers, press and industry newcomers.

The types of companies who should attend the festival include:

1. Broadcasters,
2. TV Channels,
3. Production Companies,
4. Advertising Agencies,
5. Talent Agents,
6. Consultants,
7. Interactive Developers,
8. Media Law Firms,
9. Radio Stations,
10. Music Production Services,
11. Post Production Houses.